Long Term Disability Insurance replaces part of your income if a disability keeps you out of work for a long period of time.

How does it work?
This employer-paid coverage pays a monthly benefit if you have a covered illness or injury and you can’t work for a few months — or even longer.
You’re generally considered disabled if you’re unable to do important parts of your job — and your income suffers as a result.

Why is this coverage so valuable?
Your employer is paying the cost of this coverage. You can use the money however you choose. It can help you pay for your rent or mortgage, groceries, out-of-pocket medical expenses and more.

Exclusions and limitations

Active employee
You are considered in active employment, if on the day you apply for coverage, you are being paid regularly by Walled Lake Consolidated School District for the required minimum hours each week and you are performing the material and substantial duties of your regular occupation.

Delayed effective date of coverage
Insurance coverage will be delayed if you are not an active employee because of an injury, sickness, temporary layoff, or leave of absence on the date that insurance would otherwise become effective.

Benefit Duration (BD)
The duration of your benefit payments is based on your age when your disability occurs. Your Long Term Disability benefits are payable while you continue to meet the definition of disability. Please refer to your plan document for the duration of benefits under this policy.

Definition of disability
You are considered disabled when Unum determines that:
• You are limited from performing the material and substantial duties of your regular occupation due to sickness or injury, and
• You have a 20% or more loss of indexed monthly earnings due to the same sickness or injury

After 24 months, you are considered disabled when Unum determines that due to the same sickness or injury, you are unable to perform the duties of any gainful occupation for which you are reasonably fitted by education, training or experience.

You must be under the regular care of a physician in order to be considered disabled.

The loss of a professional or occupational license or certification does not, in itself, constitute disability.

“Substantial and material acts” means the important tasks, functions and operations that are generally required by employers from those engaged in your usual occupation and that cannot be reasonably omitted or modified.

Unless the policy specifies otherwise, as part of the disability claims evaluation process, Unum will evaluate your occupation based on how it is normally performed in the national economy, not how work is performed for a specific employer, at a specific location or in a specific region.

Pre-existing conditions
You have a pre-existing condition if:
• You received medical treatment, consultation, care or services including diagnostic measures for the condition, or took prescribed drugs or medicines for it in the 3 months just prior to your effective date of coverage; and
• The disability begins in the first 12 months after your effective date of coverage.

Deductible sources of income
Your disability benefit may be reduced by deductible sources of income and any earnings you have while you are disabled, including such items as group disability benefits or other amounts you receive or are entitled to receive:
• Workers’ compensation or similar occupational benefit laws, including a temporary disability benefit under a workers’ compensation law
• State compulsory benefit laws
• Automobile liability insurance policy
• No fault motor vehicle plan
• Third-party settlements
• Other group insurance plans
• A group plan sponsored by your employer
• Governmental retirement system
• Salary continuation or sick leave plans - if included
• Retirement payments
• Social Security or similar governmental programs

Exclusions and limitations
Benefits will not be paid for disabilities caused by, contributed to by, or resulting from:
• Intentionally self-inflicted injuries;
• Active participation in a riot;
• War, declared or undeclared or any act of war;
• Commission of a crime for which you have been convicted;
• Loss of professional license, occupational license or certification; or
• Pre-existing conditions (See the disclosure section to learn more).

The loss of a professional or occupational license does not, in itself, constitute disability.

Unum will not pay a benefit for any period of disability during which you are incarcerated.

The lifetime cumulative maximum benefit for all disabilities due to mental illness and disabilities is 24 months. Only 24 months of benefits will be paid for any combination of such disabilities even if the disabilities are not continuous and/or are not related. Payments can continue beyond 24 months only if you are confined to a hospital or institution as a result of the disability.
