Walled Lake Consolidated School District Update: Dec. 10, 2019

WLCSD Parents,

Our staff and students continue to amaze us with their talent, poise and academic awareness. We thank all of our PTAs for conducting the Reflections events in our schools. The District entries are being judged so they can be sent to the State the first week in January for the State competition.

Important Information:
2. The School Finance Research Collaborative offers school funding information for parents.
3. Oakland Schools discusses “How School Aid Funding Works.”

Congratulations and thank you to:
- All of the high school athletes who were honored at the Board of Education meeting last week.
- WL Western senior football players Garrett Dee and Alex Guido for being named Dream Team Academic All-State, Sam Ahern and Brandon Camfield for being named Academic All-State First Team and WL Central’s Ethan Groeh for being named Academic All-State First Team.
- The WL Central students who participated in the Dec. 5-6 Collage Concerts!
- The Clifford Smart MS students who performed in Wizard of Oz.
