5. Superintendent Kenneth Gutman’s Community Coffee is set for Thursday, Feb. 27, at 1 p.m.
6. Census 2020 is April 1 – get the facts.
7. Two-Hour Delay Procedure.
8. Although Walled Lake Schools has not experienced, in any way, the Novel Coronavirus, or 2019-nCoV, a new respiratory virus first identified in Wuhan, Hubei Province, China in December of 2019, we are staying abreast of all precautions and information available, both locally and federally. This is the Oakland Health Department link and this is the Center for Disease Control link. As a precaution, we have added a question to the Request a Tour link on the website and will decline/delay a tour for anyone that answers that they have traveled to China in the past six months.
9. Walled Lake Schools has a long-standing commitment to ensuring our students can read. WLCSD has been implementing numerous initiatives to comply with the Michigan Third Grade Reading Law.

Congratulations and thank you to:

- Golden Apple recipients, Amy and Todd Gedeon, parent café facilitators at Twin Sun El., honored at tonight’s Board meeting.
- Eleven students will participate in the upcoming Oakland County Spelling Bee Feb. 29.
- To our 11 Walled Lake band and orchestra students on being selected for the 2020 MSBOA All-State ensembles.
