8th Grade 2018 Cedar Point Field Trip
$80 and Permission Slip DUE by Wednesday, March 14th

On Wednesday, June 13, 2018, Clifford H. Smart's 8th grade class will be going to Cedar Point as a culminating activity, re-enforcing both science and math benchmarks.

In order to attend, each student must follow the WLCSD Code of Conduct and meet the REQUIREMENTS (set by staff and administration) listed below and for the entire 4th marking period –
Tuesday, March 27 through Tuesday, June 12. Each participating student:

- MUST HAVE satisfactory academic progress
- MUST NOT HAVE any suspensions, major behavior problems, or excessive absences (discretion of Administration)

Students failing to meet these standards will forfeit $40 of the $80 fee, representing the $40 transportation cost which is non-refundable.

Please sign to acknowledge your understanding of the Cedar Point requirements.

Trip Details – On June 13, students are expected to arrive at school between 6:30 am and 6:45 am wearing the required t-shirt. Busses will be provided by Blue Lakes Transportation, and all will depart at 7:00 am SHARP!

Once in the park, students will be required to stay with at least one other member from their group at ALL times and check in with the teachers from their bus. Check-in is from 12:00 pm to 1:00 pm at the POWER TOWER in the center of the park.

Lunch is the responsibility of each student.

All students are expected to report to the bus area at 6:30 pm for the return trip. Busses will leave the park by 7:00 pm SHARP, arriving at Smart sometime between 9:30 pm - 10:00 pm.

Please plan for a timely pick-up as there is school at the regular time in the morning.

If you are a parent or guardian of an 8th grade student and would like to chaperone, please complete the form below. Chaperones are required to pay $40.00 for transportation. Admission cost will be covered. I would like to chaperone:
